

TRAVEL & TOURISM

Welcome to our Travel and Tourism newsletter specially created for you to see what's been happening in the department you will be joining this September.

Our students have been studying harder than ever, despite the lockdown restrictions, which meant new ways of working from home for much of the year.

Highlights include a trip to Barcelona, Student of the Year Awards and visits from airline professionals.

NEW IDEAS FOR CAMELOT THEME PARK

Our Level 2 Travel & Tourism students worked on proposals for a new visitor attraction on the site of the old Camelot theme park working from home during lockdown.

EASYJET VISITOR SHARES JOURNEY TO DREAM JOB

EasyJet Cabin Crew member, Megan Parr provided a masterclass for Travel & Tourism students about the journey to achieving her dream job. Students learned more about the role of airline cabin crew including induction and training.

TEAM CHILL VISIT

Students enjoyed an industry trip to Chill Factor in Manchester to not only get in some skiing practice, but find out more about the famous UK leading visitor attraction.

BARCELONA

Travel and Tourism students joined others from across the College for a well-timed trip to the Catalan capital. Before we all went into lockdown, students took in all that Barcelona has to offer, experiencing at first-hand one of Europe's busiest tourist destinations.

TRAVEL AND TOURISM STUDENTS MEAN BUSINESS

Students visited Blackpool Zoo to find out more about the business behind visitor attractions. They attended a talk on the commercial aspects of the zoo before getting up close and personal with a few of the residents.

HIGH FLYING ALUMNI SHARES SUCCESS

After gaining her British Airways wings Alannah Mulligan is enjoying a high flying career as a member of BA's cabin crew.

The HNC graduate who started College on the BTEC Level 3 Travel and Tourism programme is travelling the world on long and short haul flights, visiting Capetown, Sydney and Dubai among other destinations, fitting in some sightseeing trips along the way.

"The tutors have lots of experience and were really supportive. The course really helped me to become fully prepared for my career," said Alannah.
